WELCOME

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of Serbian Association for Arteriosclerosis, Thrombosis and Vascular Biology and Serbian Physiological Society we are especially pleased to inform you that Satellite Symposium of the XIV International Symposium on Atherosclerosis (Rome, 2006) entitled "FROM VASCULAR BIOLOGY TO THE ATHEROSCLEROSIS PREVENTION: An Eastern European Perspective" will take place in Belgrade, Serbia on June 15-16, 2006. It will include the participation of the members from different atherosclerosis, thrombosis, vascular biology and heart research societies. Due to the latest both basic and clinical scientific achievements, atherosclerosis and consequences are the most frequent cause of mortality nowadays as well as to the fact that atherosclerosis is a multi-organic disease; the need for organization of such multidisciplinary symposium including a great variety of topics concerning the problems of atherosclerosis in many branches of medicine is imposed. Taking into consideration the highest prevalence of atherosclerosis in Central- and East Europe it will be very important to establish joint European platform and how to implement joint prevention strategies in this part of world. Program prepared for the occasion includes different topics we found most actual which could give answers to many questions at the moment. An interesting social program has been prepared as well. Some papers from this symposium will be published in special issue of Experimental and Clinical Cardiology. We are especially pleased to inform you that satellite symposium will take place under the auspices of International Atherosclerosis Society with support of Union of European Medical Specialists (UEMS), International Academy of Cardiovascular Sciences, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Science and Environmental Protection, School of Medicine University of Belgrade, Military Medical Academy (MMA) and Faculty of Medicine University of Kragujevac which will not only make it possible for international participants to take part but for us as well, to get more closely involved in scientific investigations in this field worldwide. We are especially grateful to the Organizing Committee of the XIV International Symposium on Atherosclerosis ISA ROME 2006 and Professor Cesare Sirtori for granted us important symposium. Therefore, we are glad to welcome your participation at this symposium.

Sincerely,

Program/Organizing Committee

DOBRODOŠLICA

Poštovane kolege,

U ime Društva fiziologa Srbije i Sekcije za aterosklerozu, trombozu i vaskularnu biologiju veoma smo srećni što možemo da Vam pružimo zadovoljstvo da učestvujete na Satelitskom simpozijumu XIV Svetskog kongresa o aterosklerozi (Rim, 2006) pod nazivom “OD VASKULARNE BIOLOGIJE DO PREVENCIJE ATEROSKLEROZE: PERSPEKTIVE U ISTOČNOJ EVROPI”, koji se održava na VMA u Beogradu 15-16. juna 2006. godine. Na ovom simpozijumu učestvuju istraživači iz nacionalnih, evropskih i internacionalnih udruženja za istraživanje ateroskleroze, tromboze i vaskularne biologije. Danas se smatra da je ateroskleroza multi-organska bolest; iz toga proističe i potreba za učešćem stručnjaka različitih profila, koji ovoga puta dolaze iz različitih država, a pre svega iz centralne i istočne Evrope gde je ateroskleroza najvažniji uzrok smrtnosti. I dok se u razvijenim zemljama sveta oboljevanje i smrtnost od ateroskleroze i njenih komplikacija smanjuje, sistemskim merama edukacije, na nauci zasnovanoj primarnoj prevenciji i značajnim progresom u terapiji, dotle kod nas taj procenat raste i pored najvećeg ulaganja u oblast kardiovaskularne medicine u poslednjih 20 godina, slično kao i u okolnim zemljama.. Zadovoljstvo nam je što je ovakav pristup naišao na podršku Međunarodnog udruženja za aterosklerozu, Unije evropskih medicinskih specijalista (koja je skupu dala čak 12 evropskih poena u kontinuiranoj medicinskoj edukaciji), Međunarodne akademije kardiovaskularnih nauka, Ministarstva zdravlja, Ministarstva za nauku i zaštitu životne sredine Republike Srbije, Medicinskog fakulteta u Beogradu, Vojnomedicinske akademije i Medicinskog fakulteta u Kragujevcu. Odabrana predavanja sa ovog skupa su štampana u posebnom broju internacionalnog časopisa Experimental and Clinical Cardiology. U okviru međunarodnog skupa koji će se održati na engleskom jeziku (kao deo svetskog kongresa u Rimu) pripremili smo i program kontinuirane medicinske edukacije na srpskom jeziku. U finalni program su uključena i predavanja o najnovijim terapijskim dostignućima farmaceutskih industrija, kao i predavanja naših vodećih istraživača iz dijaspore.

Sa poštovanjem,

Programski/Organizacioni odbor
